SOME DISTINGUISHED VISITORS

The Centennial Committee Had Dinner
With the General—Colonel Gyger is a Busy Man—The Company Will be Home
on Monday.

CAMP CLEVELAND, Aug. 1.—[Special.]
—Friday was an ideal day. The camp
for the first time really looked as though it was intended for the habitation of human beings. Visitors by the thousand came to the lake shore, and strolling along the streets gave the scene a pleasant appearance. The sky was of a beautiful blue, and there was
joy in the camp because the weather
bureau said there would be no rain.

Among the distinguished guests who came to camp were the 60 members of the centennial commission. They came at sunset, and were accompanied by Governor Bushnell and his staff. The artillery announced their entrance into camp by the usual salute, and the soldiers were immediately astir. The gentlemen took dinner with General Ax-aline, and were then shown the splendid spectacle of dress parade. The largest crowd seen in camp were present, and
the boys did their best.

The excellent weather has had its effect upon the drilling as well as appearance of the soldiers, and Company E is making rapid strides. It is among the commands always applauded when it appears in public. Captain Freese, of Canton, said that our company was deserving of great praise for the progress
it is making. In face of the difficulties
that have crowded its path, the progress
is nothing short of wonderful. By the way it is quietly whispered around that Captain Freese is to have the first regimental vacancy, and there is no one in the Eighth who has a better claim on it.

Sergeant Peinton and Private Tritt
left for home Friday afternoon because of illness in their families. The inspection of company quarters is booked for Saturday, and tents are being placed in the pink of condition for the event. The officers of the Eighth called on General Axaline in a body this morning, and enjoyed a pleasant hour. It is announced that the officers of the governor's staff
will camp here for a week or two, but
the date is not given out.

General Axaline is still interested in the health of the soldiers, and on Friday
received a letter from Colonel Buchner,
of the Sixteenth, and one from Colonel Hunt, of the First, the troops occupying the camp last week. The newspapers, it will be remembered, said that many soldiers were ill, but the letters said that not a man was sick as a result of the encampment, and the general was warmly
thanked for his earnest efforts in behalf of the boys.

Colonel Poland, in charge of the United States troops stationed in Columbus, was the guest of Colonel Gyger on Friday evening. The quarters of the colonel have been moved from the ground near general headquarters to a pleasant spot near the Eighth. He is the busiest man in camp, and all the duties of a brigade commander fall to his lot. He told the writer that the health of the camp was especially good.
Only four men were reported ill, and
they were not much more than indis-
posed. He is pleased with the manner in which the Eighth is attracting attention.

Great rivalry exists between the Liverpool and Alliance companies. Their quarters are near, and when the regiment is dismissed after drill there is a race for the tents. The winner never fails to greet the defeated one with shouts of derision. Last night someone proposed three cheers for Company K,
and they were given with a will. The echoes had not ceased sounding when
the Alliance boys heartily cheered East Liverpool.

The regiment will break camp on Monday morning, and we will likely be home at noon. Orderly Bloor is the only member who has been in the hospital.
Two members of the company were arrested last night for walking in the camp of the regulars, and were kept in confinement for half an hour.

That East Liverpool has not forgotten
the boys is proven by the visitors we have. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Knowles called on Friday, and Mr. Knowles had dinner with the boys. Motormen
Thomas and Andrews, of the street car
line, were also here, and spent a few hours very pleasantly.

Didn't Look Pretty.

A local barber when in a playful mood
rain the clippers through the beautiful

hair of one of his men. He did not look pretty when the operation was completed, and at once resigned his place.

EXPLODED.

Two Men Badly Hurt When a Boiler
Let Go.

LISBON, Aug. 1 [Special].—The boiler
at the Henry Morrow brick works, one mile south of this place on the Wells-
ville road, exploded this morning, and
three men were hurt, two of them receiving hurts that may cost them their lives.

A workman named McGeehan was
at the brick machine when the boiler let go, and he was perhaps fatally hurt.
The flesh dropped from his head, arms
and body, and he was badly scalded
from head to foot. Homer Fleming was standing near, and his right side was scalded the entire length. Frank Spence
was passing when the explosion occurred, and was slightly burned on the leg.
Had the accident happened 15 minutes
later, all the employees would have been in the building, and the list of injured
would have been much larger. The explosion was due to a defect in the boiler,
although it was completely overhauled
a short time ago. The injured men reside in Wayne township, and after receiving medical attention were taken home.

MORE PREVARICATION.

A Local Paper Adding to Its Reputation
For Untruth.

The lying proclivities of a local paper
prompted it to say that President Hughes, of the Brotherhood, was very indignant over "the report given credence in a local paper that the Brotherhood was using the kiln drawers' strike
as a feeler for a general strike." Mr.
Hughes repudiates the alleged interview, and declares that he never talked
with the reporter of the sheet in question about the matter. He says the NEWS REVIEW published just what he said, and it contained no reference to a "feeler." Furthermore, it is well known that a reporter of the paper in question wired the "feeler" in his correspondence
to a Pittsburg paper, and he alone is the responsible party. For some reason, that paper cannot tell the truth.

WALKED ON AVONDALE.

Council Viewed the Street After Their Meeting.

After the meeting of council it was thought best to carefully go over the damaged places in the city, and see what could be done to make them better than before the flood. Among other places visited was Avondale street. The driver
could not take his horses through the fences, and the councilmen walked the damaged portion while the wagon went around by way of the Calcutta road, and met them near Bank street. Council was convinced of the necessity of starting street improvements at once.

REPAIRING THE PUMP.

Water Will Soon Come From the Diamond
Well.

Workmen were today engaged in making repairs at the Diamond well, the tubing having slipped down and necessitating much additional labor. It was reported that the water department had
finally agreed to allow the use of water
to operate the motor, but that was found to be untrue. An official said that the committee had never officially asked the trustees for water, and while the matter
had been mentioned in an informal way
it had never been sent to the board.

FINE KINDLING WOOD.

The Ball Ground Fence Makes the Best in Town.

The storm of Thursday blew down several sections of the big fence built between the railroad and the ball ground,
and as no attempt has been made to repair it the enterprising urchins of the West End are helping themselves. The fence when cut into proper lengths
makes the best kind of kindling wood,
and many houses in that part of town
are well supplied. The fence was built last year by the association boys, and
was repaired this year at no small expense.

NO DAMAGE

Done by a Frightened Horse as it Dashed
Through Sixth Street.

Clem McQuilken was driving along Sixth street last night when a part of the harness broke, and the horse became frightened. The buggy was overturned,
and the driver thrown out. The horse
finding itself loose dashed through Sixth street to Broadway, and then back to the cemetery where he was captured. No damage was done the buggy, and
Mr. McQuilken was unhurt.

DIRECTORS WILL CALL

Association Officials Have Adopted a Plan.

MONEY MUST BE COLLECTED

And They Have Chosen an Excellent Way.
An Effort Will be Made to Increase the Membership Before October 1 to Five Hundred.

The directors of the Young Men's Christian association have decided upon
a plan to raise money for the support of the organization.

During the six years it has been in existence the association has proved a great benefit, and is now a firmly established
institution. To make it more efficient,
the board, looking upon the opportunity as providential, have purchased a building, and propose to occupy it as soon as possible. This makes necessary an increased outlay of money, although the change will materially reduce current expenses after the new quarters are fitted out. For this amount the board has decided to ask
the business and professional men of the city. They do not come begging, but ask it as a right in order that the association may become an institution of which the city will be proud. That no one may feel the burden in these dull
times, the board have decided to ask a great number for a small amount each.
The 15 members of the board have dis-
tricted the city, and will make a personal cavass. After the amount has been raised, a strong effort will be put forward
to increase the membership of the association to 500 before Oct. 1, when it is expected the new quarters will be opened.

A BIG MAJORITY.

The Republicans Will Carry the County
Next November.

They were talking politics, and a possible fusion of the Democrats and Populists, this morning when one of the best known Republicans of the county said:
"The Republicans need not fear the vote outside of the large towns of the county. I have been among the farmers
for several months and have talked politics with them for years, and the information I have is that they will vote for McKinley. The Republicans will carry
the county by not less than 4000 votes,
and the whole ticket will be elected.
The farmers are well satisfied with the
the money they have now, and they are all right on the tariff."

PICKING UP.

Trade Is Getting a Little Better in New York.

Says the New York correspondent of a
trade paper:

"Trade has been picking up slightly
during the past week, and while there has been little life in general lines of crochery and glassware, except in specialties, the lamp trade has fairly begun
to make the turn, and low and fair
priced goods have been on the move.
On a whole, trade during July has been
dull, almost dead, but everybody is confident that August will make up for the extreme dullness of July."

CRADLES AGAIN.

Farmers Cannot Use Machines to Harvest
Oats.

The vast amount of rain of the past few weeks has made the ground wet
and soggy, and is causing farmers a great deal of trouble. But little of the oats crop has been harvested in the county, and farmers are now compelled
to put their machines under cover, and
do the work in the old-fashioned way.
A resident of St. Clair township said
this afternoon that it has been years
since cradles were so generally used.

EXAMINING THE BOOKS.

Something More About the School Enu-
meration.

That members of the school board are dissatisfied with the late enumeration of school children is shown by the close examination of the books. They cannot understand why the falling off in the Third and Fourth wards should be so heavy. In 1891 there were 3,884 children in town, and this year the returns
only show 3,808. It is possible the board will refuse to accept the Third and Fourth wards, and another count will be made.

WASHED AWAY THE LINE.

Another Accident Disabled the Bridge-
water Main.

Gas in the mains of the Bridgewater
company was shut off today by an accident near the power house. The rains
had weakened the fill, and at an early hour a large amount of dirt slipped into the river. Cars could not go over the break on the street car line, and passengers were transferred. About 60 feet of the pipe line was washed out, but a large force was soon employed repairing

the damage. Manager Hunter believes he can have the break made whole by this evening. The cost of the accident
will amount to several hundred dollars.

ONE MAN KILLED.

Another Riot at the Brown Works This Afternoon.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 1 [Special].—The
strike at the works of the Brown Hoisting company was settled early this week, but the men came out again yesterday, charging that the company had broken faith with them. The strikers gathered a great crowd of sympathizers around them, and the scenes of a few weeks ago were repeated. One non-union man was followed home and stoned all the way. Several shots were fired but no one was hurt. This afternoon another riot occurred, and one man
was fatally shot. A large force of police have been ordered to the scene, and the military will likely be ordered into active service before night.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Samuel Carter, Kilnman, Makes a Statement.

I, Samuel Carter, an old kilnhand,
having worked for many years in East Liverpool, would simply say to the public that I have not been used right
by those who are attempting to keep me
from securing employment. I understand my business and am a careful and skillful workman. In the late difficulty
I had with Mr. John Mountford, I admit that I may have used strong language to him; but I did so under great provocation and insult, and it is but
natural to hit back when one is abused
or insulted, as I have been. I have always been a good and lawabiding citizen. SAMUEL CARTER.

DISMISSED.

A Number of Cases Were Erased From the Docket.

LISBON, Aug. 1 [Special].—The action
for divorce brought by Mrs. Alice L.
Stewart, of Wellsville, against her husband, John Stewart, was dismissed because the plaintiff refused to push the case. Several other cases went the same way.

The appraisers appointed to appraise 651 acres of land in Elkrun township have made their return to court. They placed the value of the land at $7,364.

W. J. Betz, of West township, sued Margaret Folger for $400, the amount of a bill for board.

KNOCKED SENSELESS.

A Small Boy Collided with a Wagon on
Smoky.

A party of boys were playing ball on Second street this morning, and one ran across the street. He looked over his shoulder to see what the others were doing, and collided with the wagon of Jack Rowe. He struck the wagon between the front and rear wheels, and fell senseless to the street. Rowe and others who had seen the accident, picked up the lad, and after a few minutes succeeded in restoring him to consciousness.
He felt the force of the accident and was taken to his home by companions.

AFTER A THIEF.

An Allegheny Detective Remained Here
Several Days.

An Allegheny detective was in town
for several weeks, looking for a man who had stolen a bicycle, and had come down the river. He expected the fellow to arrive here last night, but was notified by the Rochester police that they had arrested him in that place, and were holding him for the detective. The bicycle thief has flourished and grown fat in Pittsburg during the last few months.

OUR PLAYERS.

What the Papers Say of East Liverpool
Boys.

Sporting Life says, "Will Mercer become a second Hawley? The bleachers
can easily rattle him by making remarks
about his beauty."

The Pittsburg correspondent in speaking of Interstate league catchers says
Shaw is "close onto high class."

In the last seven games played by Syracuse Carey has a record of 11 hits to his credit. Two of the hits were two-baggers and one a triple.

Called Off the Strike.

At a meeting of kiln drawers last night it was decided to end the strike
and go to work, thus ratifying the action
of the meeting held earlier in the week.

—L. W. Simms was in Canton yester-
day. He will move there this week.

Tragic Death of Charley Culbertson in Wellsville.

FELL FROM A PASSENGER TRAIN

Hundreds Saw the Accident—The Boy
Had Heart Trouble, and Was Attacked
While Riding, Causing Him to Let Go
His Hold on the Rail.

The most tragic death Wellsville has ever seen, occurred near the upper passenger station as the train from the river division was turning into the main line.

Charles Culbertson, not more than 17
years of age, jumped on the steps of the
last car at the shops, and rode to town.
As the train rounded the curve in the switch, Culbertson was seen to fall to the ground, and lay there as though dead. There was a large crowd at the station, and a rush was made for the spot. The boy was carried to a house,
and a physician was called. He found Culbertson had sustained several severe cuts and bruises, and his neck was broken. At first he was thought to be dead, but he rallied and spoke several times. The injuries, however, were of such a nature that he could not live for any length of time, and he died within half an hour. Culbertson was afflicted with heart trouble, and it is thought
that he was attacked by the disease
while riding on the train. This caused him to loosen his hold on the rail and he fell. The crowd saw the accident, several hundred people being at the station,
and a cry of horror went up as the boy
rolled on the ground.

BROKE OUT.

The Horse of Henry Bevington Caused a Sensation.

The horse owned by Henry Beving-
ton, the mail carrier, was tied in the street near his house when it became frightened and ran down the street. It went over an embankment near Avon-
dale street, and ran into the enameling works of A. J. Boyce. There it left the buggy, and tearing down Ravine street
was caught on Walnut. The harness
was broken and the vehicle reduced to kindling wood.

CUT OFF A PRIVILEGE.

For many years it has been the prac-

Some men have used the custom to have
butter and eggs sent from various points
along the road. An order issued yesterday says that articles of this kind must be placed in the express car, and will be charged the regular rate.

A Local Paper Adding to Its Reputation
For Untruth.

The lying proclivities of a local paper prompted it to say that President Hughes, of the Brotherhood, was very indignant over "the report given credence in a local paper that the Brotherhood was using the kiln drawers' strike as a feeler for a general strike." Mr. Hughes repudiates the alleged interview, and declares that he never talked with the reporter of the sheet in question about the matter. He says the News Review published just what he said, and it contained no reference to a "feeler." Furthermore, it is well known that a reporter of the paper in question wired the "feeler" in his correspondence to a Pittsburg paper, and he alone is the responsible party. For some reason, that paper cannot tell the truth.

WALKED ON AVONDALE.

Council Viewed the Street After Their Meeting.

After the meeting of council it was thought best to carefully go over the damaged places in the city, and see what could be done to make them better than before the flood. Among other places visited was Avondale street. The driver could not take his horses through the fences, and the councilmen walked the damaged portion while the wagon went around by way of the Calcutta road, and met them near Bank street. Council was convinced of the necessity of starting street improvements at once.

REPAIRING THE PUMP.

Water Will Soon Come From the Diamond
Well.

Workmen were today engaged in making repairs at the Diamond well, the tubing having slipped down and necessitating much additional labor. It was reported that the water department had finally agreed to allow the use of water to operate the motor, but that was found to be untrue. An official said that the committee had never officially asked the trustees for water, and while the matter had been mentioned in an informal way it had never been sent to the board.

FINE KINDLING WOOD.

Town.

The storm of Thursday blew down several sections of the big fence built between the railroad and the ball ground, and as no attempt has been made to repair it the enterprising urchins of the West End are helping themselves. The fence when cut into proper lengths makes the best kind of kindling wood, and many houses in that part of town are well supplied. The fence was built last year by the association boys, and was repaired this year at no small expense.

NO DAMAGE

Done by a Frightened Horse as It Dashed
Through Sixth Street.

Clem McQuilken was driving along Sixth street last night when a part of the harness broke, and the horse became frightened. The buggy was overturned, and the driver thrown out. The horse finding itself loose dashed through Sixth street to Broadway, and then back to the cemetery where he was captured. No damage was done the buggy, and Mr. McQuilken was unhurt.

DIRECTORS WILL CALL

Association Officials Have Adopted a Plan.

MONEY MUST BE COLLECTED

And They Have Chosen an Excellent Way.
An Effort Will be Made to Increase the Membership Before October 1 to Five Hundred.

The directors of the Young Men's Christian association have decided upon a plan to raise money for the support of the organization.

During the six years it has been in existence the association has proved a great benefit, and is now a firmly established institution. To make it more efficient, the board, looking upon the opportunity as providential, have purchased a building, and propose to occupy it as soon as possible. This makes necessary an increased outlay of money, although the change will materially reduce current expenses after the new quarters are fitted out. For this amount the board has decided to ask the business and professional men of the city. They do not come begging, but ask it as a right in order that the association may become an institution of which the city will be proud. That no one may feel the burden in these dull times, the board have decided to ask a great number for a small amount each. The 15 members of the board have distributed the city, and will make a personal canvass. After the amount has been raised, a strong effort will be put forward to increase the membership of the association to 500 before Oct. 1, when it is expected the new quarters will be opened.

A BIG MAJORITY.

The Republicans Will Carry the County
Next November.

They were talking politics, and a possible fusion of the Democrats and Populists, this morning when one of the best known Republicans of the county said: "The Republicans need not fear the vote outside of the large towns of the county. I have been among the farmers for several months and have talked politics with them for years, and the information I have is that they will vote for McKinley. The Republicans will carry the county by not less than 4000 votes, and the whole ticket will be elected. The farmers are well satisfied with the money they have now, and they are all right on the tariff."

PICKING UP.

Trade Is Getting a Little Better in New York.

Says the New York correspondent of a
trade paper:

"Trade has been picking up slightly during the past week, and while there has been little life in general lines of crockery and glassware, except in specialties, the lamp trade has fairly begun to make the turn, and low and fair priced goods have been on the move. On a whole, trade during July has been dull, almost dead, but everybody is confident that August will make up for the extreme dullness of July."

CRADLES AGAIN.

Farmers Cannot Use Machines to Harvest
Oats.

The vast amount of rain of the past few weeks has made the ground wet and soggy, and is causing farmers a great deal of trouble. But little of the oats crop has been harvested in the county, and farmers are now compelled to put their machines under cover, and do the work in the old-fashioned way. A resident of St. Clair township said this afternoon that it has been years since cradles were so generally used.

EXAMINING THE BOOKS.

Something More About the School Enu-
meration.

That members of the school board are dissatisfied with the late enumeration of school children is shown by the close examination of the books. They cannot understand why the falling off in the Third and Fourth wards should be so heavy. In 1891 there were 3,884 children in town, and this year the returns only show 3,808. It is possible the board will refuse to accept the Third and Fourth wards, and another count will be made.

WASHED AWAY THE LINE.

Another Accident Disabled the Bridge-
water Main.

Gas in the mains of the Bridgewater company was shut off today by an accident near the power house. The rains had weakened the fill, and at an early hour a large amount of dirt slipped into the river. Cars could not go over the break on the street car line, and passengers were transferred. About 60 feet of the pipe line was washed out, but a large force was soon employed repairing the damage. Manager Hunter believes he can have the break made whole by this evening. The cost of the accident will amount to several hundred dollars.

ONE MAN KILLED.

Another Riot at the Brown Works This Afternoon.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 1 [Special.]—The strike at the works of the Brown Hoisting company was settled early this week, but the men came out again yesterday, charging that the company had broken faith with them. The strikers gathered a great crowd of sympathizers around them, and the scenes of a few weeks ago were repeated. One non-union man was followed home and stoned all the way. Several shots were fired but no one was hurt. This afternoon another riot occurred, and one man was fatally shot. A large force of police have been ordered to the scene, and the military will likely be ordered into active service before night.

TO THE PUBLIC.

ment.

I, Samuel Carter, an old kilnhand, having worked for many years in East Liverpool, would simply say to the public that I have not been used right by those who are attempting to keep me from securing employment. I understand my business and am a careful and skillful workman. In the late difficulty I had with Mr. John Mountford, I admit that I may have used strong language to him; but I did so under great provocation and insult, and it is but natural to hit back when one is abused or insulted, as I have been. I have always been a good and law-abiding citizen.

DISMISSED.

A Number of Cases Were Erased From the Docket.

LISBON, Aug. 1 [Special.]—The action for divorce brought by Mrs. Alice L. Stewart, of Wellsville, against her husband, John Stewart, was dismissed because the plaintiff refused to push the case. Several other cases went the same way.

The appraisers appointed to appraise 651 acres of land in Elkrun township have made their return to court. They placed the value of the land at $7,364.

W. J. Betz, of West township, sued Margaret Folger for $400, the amount of a bill for board.

KNOCKED SENSELESS.

A Small Boy Collided with a Wagon on
Smoky.

A party of boys were playing ball on Second street this morning, and one ran across the street. He looked over his shoulder to see what the others were doing, and collided with the wagon of Jack Rowe. He struck the wagon between the front and rear wheels, and fell senseless to the street. Rowe and others who had seen the accident, picked up the lad, and after a few minutes succeeded in restoring him to consciousness. He felt the force of the accident and was taken to his home by companions.

AFTER A THIEF.

An Allegheny Detective Remained Here
Several Days.

An Allegheny detective was in town for several weeks, looking for a man who had stolen a bicycle, and had come down the river. He expected the fellow to arrive here last night, but was notified by the Rochester police that they had arrested him in that place, and were holding him for the detective. The bicycle thief has flourished and grown fat in Pittsburgh during the last few months.

OUR PLAYERS.

What the Papers Say of East Liverpool
Boys.

Sporting Life says, "Will Mercer become a second Hawley? The bleachers can easily rattle him by making remarks about his beauty."

The Pittsburg correspondent in speaking of Interstate league catchers says Shaw is "close onto high class."

In the last seven games played by Syracuse Carey has a record of 11 hits to his credit. Two of the hits were two-baggers and one a triple.

Called Off the Strike.

At a meeting of kiln drawers last night it was decided to end the strike and go to work, thus ratifying the action of the meeting held earlier in the week.

—L. W. Simms was in Canton yesterday. He will move there this week.

HE BROKE HIS NECK

Tragic Death of Charley Culbertson in Wellsville.

FELL FROM A PASSENGER TRAIN

Hundreds Saw the Accident—The Boy
Had Heart Trouble, and Was Attacked
While Riding, Causing Him to Let Go
His Hold on the Rail.

The most tragic death Wellsville has ever seen, occurred near the upper passenger station as the train from the river division was turning into the main line.

Charles Culbertson, not more than 17 years of age, jumped on the steps of the last car at the shops, and rode to town. As the train rounded the curve in the switch, Culbertson was seen to fall to the ground, and lay there as though dead. There was a large crowd at the station, and a rush was made for the spot. The boy was carried to a house, and a physician was called. He found Culbertson had sustained several severe cuts and bruises, and his neck was broken. At first he was thought to be dead, but he rallied and spoke several times. The injuries, however, were of such a nature that he could not live for any length of time, and he died within half an hour. Culbertson was afflicted with heart trouble, and it is thought that he was attacked by the disease while riding on the train. This caused him to loosen his hold on the rail and he fell. The crowd saw the accident, several hundred people being at the station, and a cry of horror went up as the boy rolled on the ground.

BROKE OUT.

The Horse of Henry Bevington Caused a Sensation.

The horse owned by Henry Bevington, the mail carrier, was tied in the street near his house when it became frightened and ran down the street. It went over an embankment near Avondale street, and ran into the enameling works of A. J. Boyce. There it left the buggy, and tearing down Ravine street was caught on Walnut. The harness was broken and the vehicle reduced to kindling wood.

CUT OFF A PRIVILEGE.

The Pennsylvania Company Make Another Move.

For many years it has been the practice of employees of the Pennsylvania company to have packages sent over the line in the baggage car free of charge. Some men have used the custom to have butter and eggs sent from various points along the road. An order issued yesterday says that articles of this kind must be placed in the express car, and will be charged the regular rate.

VICTORY.

This county will give an overwhelming Republican victory in the coming presidential issue. The silver craze has failed to distract attention from the vital issue of the campaign, protection to home and home industries, as exemplified in the life, character and statesmanship of protection's greatest living champion and exponent, Wm. McKinley, the next president of the United States. Cleveland, Wilson and Bryan, blatant free traders, have done their utmost to ruin this fair land, and have succeeded in stopping, in a large measure, the wheels of industry. Manufacturing establishments have been compelled to shut down, or curtail expenses, and thousands upon thousands of workmen have been thrown out of employment, while farmers have been forced to sell wool at 9 cents per pound, and the pottery industry has been almost ruined. Bryan has been the absolute enemy of the manufacturer, the mechanic, the farmer and the pottery worker, and Columbiana county will repay him through the medium of an overwhelming Republican victory. Every workman, whose capital is his labor, should brand Bryan at the ballot box.

THE REAL REASON.

The man who feels sufficient interest in the silver question to give it serious thought, will find that it hinges solely upon the grasping disposition of the mine owners of the West. The value of a given number of grains of silver when coined into money, is greater than the value of the same number of grains when in the form of bullion. The mine owners have the bullion and the government owns the stamp—which makes the money. Not satisfied with the profit derived from the sale of silver, a commodity in the market, the miners would increase the interest on their investment by raising the price. They want the government to take their silver, and without any charge transform the bullion into coin. There can be only a certain amount of silver in a dollar, and the difference between the market value of that quantity and the 100 cents it is worth when the stamp is put on, represents the fictitious value, the amount which some one must lose. If the silver in a dollar is only worth 53 cents before the government makes it into money, then 47 cents is the loss to the government after the stamp is applied, for the United States declares that 53 cents worth of silver is equal in value to one dollar of gold. As the government is nothing more than the people as a whole, it is self evident that all the people must make up that 47 cents in every dollar coined. The only benefit goes to the mine owner, who can well afford to lose his share when there are so many millions of men to make up the remainder. To him it is the source of great profit. He is accumulating wealth at the expense of the remainder of the people. While they are paying the difference in the real and the fictitious value of the myriads of silver dollars coined under the unlimited clause, he is quietly taking in the profit.

There could be but one end to this ruinous policy. The currency of the country would be watered, and after a time it would overflow. Like a soaked sponge it would refuse to longer retain the fluid. Then the crash would come. The millions lost by the government in upholding a supposition value would be felt. There would be an end, and an awful end it would be. The people who had been doing business on a dollar almost one half of which was credit, the workman who took it for his labor, the merchant who took it over his counter, and the manufacturer and farmer who received it in exchange for their products and crops would be the sufferers. The only man who could count a gain would be the miner, who had been giving 53 cents worth of silver to the government, and receiving in return a dollar ready for circulation.

M'KEE CLAIMS AN ALIBI.

The Portsmouth Dynamiter Says He Can Prove His Innocence.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Aug. 1.—Tom McKee, the alleged dynamiter, still stoutly maintains his plea of innocence. When asked to plead in the warrant prepared by Marshal Watkins McKee, in a tone somewhat indicating surprise, said: "Why, land of rest, of course I am not guilty. I never thought of such a thing." To a reporter, in a few minutes afterward, he repeated his plea and said he thought the guilty party ought to be hanged.

McKee has prepared a list of witnesses by which he expects to prove his whereabouts at the time the explosions took place. He claims he can account for every minute.

A detective from Chicago who has been working on the case says McKee is innocent.

Attorney Beatty, who was refused permission to consult with McKee, is very bitter in his denunciation of the authorities. He claims he had been engaged by friends of McKee and is armed with incontrovertible evidence to prove an alibi.

Marshal Watkins has a theory that the attack on the Second Presbyterian church is due somewhat to the fact that Mrs. Basham some time ago lived in a house belonging to the janitor of the church, and was evicted for non-payment of rent. By blowing up the church McKee was not only evening up his score with the city, but was getting in a lick for Mrs. Basham with whom he is desperately in love.

THE FIRST GUN AUG. 15.

Sherman, Foraker and Possibly McKinley May Speak at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, Aug. 1.—The Republican state executive committee at its meeting here decided to formally open the Ohio Republican campaign with a rally in this city Aug. 15, Senator Sherman is to preside and will make the opening speech. He will be followed by Senator-elect Foraker, who has decided to postpone his European tour in order to be present. An effort is now being made to secure the attendance of another equally prominent Republican and several messages have been sent urging him to come.

These have been supplemented by a personal invitation from Governor McKinley, and it is believed that there will be no trouble in securing his acceptance. So far he has been busy with the work of the campaign in his own state. Should he not come another equally well-known Republican who was forward in the fight made in behalf of Governor McKinley at the St. Louis convention will be invited, so that in any event the best speakers in the party will be present.

It is also possible that Governor McKinley will come, an invitation having been sent him, to which no answer has been received.

DECLARED FOR ARBITRATION.

The International Labor Congress Wants Standing Armies Abolished.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—The International Socialist and Labor congress has declared in favor of the abolition of the standing armies and the establishment of a national citizen force, and in favor of the establishment of a tribunal of arbitration whose decision should be final and whose duties it should be to regulate disputes between nations, adding that the question of war or peace should rest with the people where the governments refuse to accept the award of the tribunal of arbitration.

The congress also protested against secret treaties, declaring that the workmen can only obtain the objects enumerated by gaining control of legislation and allying themselves with the international socialist movement.

Thirteen Cars and Engine Wrecked.

WILMINGTON, O., Aug. 1.—Freight train No. 49, on the Cincinnati and Muskingum Valley railroad, struck a bunch of cattle two miles out. Thirteen cars and the engine were thrown from the track, tearing up the rails and roadbed for some distance. The engine is not badly injured, but the cars will be burned as they lay. Aside from a sprained and a bruised face, the engineer miraculously escaped injury. At the time of the accident two cars were being pushed in front of the engine.

Strike at Cleveland Resumed.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 1.—The strike at the works of the Brown Hoisting and Conveying Machine company was renewed today by order of the strikers' executive committee. The men found that the settlement effected by the state board of arbitration does not include recognition, nor the discharge of all non-union men, and on these points they will continue the battle.

HARRITY HAS RETIRED.

Prominent Figure Now Out of National Politics.

TAKES HIS PLACE IN THE RANKS.

He Makes Public a Statement Announcing His Retirement From Active Political Work—Still Intends to Take Interest in His Party.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 1.—William F. Harrity, until recently the chairman of the Democratic national committee and for years a leader in the party councils, has made the interesting announcement that he has retired from active politics.

In answer to inquiries on the subject Mr. Harrity made the following statement:

"Yes, it is true that I have determined to withdraw from active participation in political affairs. For several years past I have been accorded some prominence in the management and leadership of the Democratic party, but I now desire to take my place in the ranks, except in so far as I may have duties to perform as the Pennsylvania member of the Democratic national committee.

"In taking this step, I wish to express my warm appreciation of the personal and political friendship and support which I have enjoyed during my political career. I have no resentments for my enemies, and nothing but gratitude for my friends. No man ever had warmer or more loyal and devoted friends than I have had. These friends

W. F. HARRITY.

I still hope to retain, even though I have withdrawn from active political association with them; and if the time shall come when I can serve or aid them, it will be my pleasure to respond to their calls or demands.

"I shall," said Mr. Harrity, "continue to take a general interest in politics and shall always be ready to do whatever I reasonably and consistently can to promote the success of the Democratic party, but I shall absolutely refrain from any participation whatever in matters that relate to party organization and management. I have given a good deal of my time and energies to political matters since 1882 when I first began to take an active part in politics. I have now concluded, however, to take a rest from politics, so to speak, and to devote all of my energies to the management of the affairs of the Equitable Trust company, to the practice of my profession and to my private business matters.

VISITED MAJOR MCKINLEY.

Farmers, Workingmen and Old Soldiers of Guernsey County, O., Called.

CANTON, O., Aug. 1.—The most enthusiastic delegation and most affecting greeting at the McKinley home was the visit of farmers, workingmen and old soldiers of Guernsey county. The delegation left Cambridge on the Cleveland and Marietta railroad and in a short time struck the flooded lowlands. "For seven miles," said ex-Congressman J. D. Taylor, "the locomotive poled its nose through water overflowing the Tuscarawas river and it was a fight to get through."

At the McKinley residence Mr. Taylor acted as spokesman for the party, which was under G. A. R. auspices.

Chaplain William McFarland of the United Presbyterian church, Cambridge, followed, saying: "I came to speak, but to see and hear and think and to grasp the hand of the most illustrious friend of labor in the United States, or in the world."

Turning to Major McKinley, who was standing under the folds of an old flag which waved above him by an old soldier, the chaplain grasped McKinley's hand and, trembling with emotion, said:

"I know of no man who has done more to elevate and dignify labor than you. I know of no man who has put a brighter crown of glory on the brow of honest toil than yourself."

Tears came to many an eye, and it was with visible feeling that Major McKinley replied.

THE GOLD CONVENTION.

An Important Meeting of Democrats in Chicago Today.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—There will be a meeting of the executive committee having in charge state organizations of gold standard I em crats at the Palmer House headquarters today.

General Bragg, chairman, issued the call and it is expected reports will be received from states enough to give an indication as to what extent the third ticket movement has gone and will go.

The work of bringing about a national convention is progressing satisfactorily. It is now believed that from 30 to 35 states will be represented at the conference on Aug. 7.

A Bad Gang Sentenced.

VIENNA, Aug. 1.—After six weeks' trial at Agram the Stenjevec band, numbering 36 persons, charged with 18 murders and numerous assaults and robberies, has been ended. Nineteen, including two women, have been condemned to death, nine have been sentenced to imprisonment and eight acquitted.

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN BOOK.

It Will Be Ready Monday—Chairman Jones' Intentions.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The Republican congressional committee announces that the campaign book text book will be ready for distribution Monday.

Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee is expected here on Monday. Immediately after his arrival the announcement of the location of the national headquarters will be made. Little doubt is entertained at the Democratic congressional headquarters that Washington will be selected. The rooms engaged at the Bartholdi in New York were simply those of the treasurer.

Senator Faulkner, chairman of the Democratic congressional committee returned from his home in West Virginia today. He believes that the national Democratic headquarters will be located here. He says the demand upon his committee for campaign literature at this early stage is unprecedented. It is confined exclusively to the money question.

The principal speeches called for are those of Representative Towne, Senators Teller, Cockrell, Vest and Harris. The temporary and probably the permanent headquarters of the Popular national committee will be located at 1420 New York avenue, which is the headquarters of Senator Stewart and his silver paper.

BRYAN'S EASTERN TRIP.

The Democratic Candidate Announces Coming Itinerary.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 1.—Mr. Bryan has announced his itinerary for his eastern trip to meet the notification committee from the Democratic national convention in Madison Square garden Aug. 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will leave Lincoln on the Burlington at 6 o'clock Friday evening, Aug. 7, arriving in Chicago on Saturday afternoon. They will stop over Sunday and will leave Chicago on the Pennsylvania road about midnight Sunday night, reaching Pittsburgh Monday night. They will stay overnight in Pittsburgh and leave for New York early Tuesday morning, arriving there about half past 2 Tuesday evening. The national committee will meet in New York at the time of the notification and important campaign matters will be discussed.

From New York Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will go to Bath, Me., and spend a few days with the Sewalls. The return trip will not be arranged until after the New York meeting. Mr. Bryan is not making any dates for speeches at this time, and will not do so until after the national committee has been consulted. He has been receiving large numbers of invitations to speak in almost every state of the Union. Most of them have come by mail or wire, but many have been extended by men who have come in person for that purpose. To each, he has given the same answer, that he would make no appointments until after meeting with the national committee.

ENDORSED BY TAMMANY.

The New York Organization Comes Out For Bryan and Sewall.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Tammany hall will endorse Bryan and Sewall without waiting for the state convention. The executive committee has passed by acclamation a resolution to that effect, after defeating a motion to postpone action by a vote of 71 to 4. Immediately immense pictures of the Democratic nominees were raised on the outside of the building and preparations begun for active work.

The executive committee was called to order by James J. Martin. John C. Sheehan introduced the resolution endorsing the Chicago candidates. In introducing the resolution he explained that at the Chicago convention the delegates from New York fought hard for what they believed was sound money, but were largely in the minority. He declared it a good Democratic rule to stand by the will of the majority when duly expressed.

GOOD THING FOR SPAIN.

A Cuban Paper's Comments on the President's Proclamation.

HAVANA, Aug. 1.—La Lucha has a comment upon the report from Washington that President Cleveland's proclamation of warning to filibusters is designed to fulfill all necessary preliminary formalities on the part of the United States government so as to aid claims for indemnities which the United States intends to make on Spain for losses suffered by Americans during the war in Cuba.

La Lucha observes that such a course might not be so bad for Spain as it appears and might even be in her favor, because the Madrid government would back with unimpeachable proofs a claim on the Washington government for all damages caused by the negligence which has always been displayed by the United States government toward the prevention of filibustering.

The proved compliance of local and high national officials of the United States with the plans of the filibusters, says La Lucha, and the fact that they have lent protection to the arming and dispatching of expeditions which they were ordered to prevent, constitutes a serious crime, as President Cleveland, in his proclamation, points out.

This journal concludes that where Spain would have to pay $10 indemnity she could easily and surely collect $1,000.

THE BILLET POOL SAFE.

No Dissatisfaction Was Developed at the Conference.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—About 30 establishments engaged in the manufacture of steel billets were represented at a conference which was held at the Holland House, in this city. It had been understood that the purpose of the conference was to revise the arrangement as to production and prices into which the manufacturers entered last April, the statement having been made that some of the smaller concerns, dissatisfied with the percentage of output assigned to them, threatened to cut prices $2 a ton. Two sessions of the conference were held.

Major L. F. Vent of Philadelphia presiding. John G. Griscom of Pittsburgh assured the reporters after the adjournment of the meeting that if there existed any such dissatisfaction as had been alleged, it did not show itself at the conference, which, he added, was merely for the purpose of considering routine business.

Tailors Winning Their Strike.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The executive committee of the striking tailors announced that 20 contractors signed the agreement and that 250 tailors would go to work for them on Sunday.

Cabinet Crisis In Spain.

MADRID, Aug. 1.—A cabinet crisis is believed to be imminent here.

VICTORIA MAY RETIRE.

Talk of England's Queen Abdicating the Throne.

THE PRINCE OF WALES TO RULE.

His Health, the Weight of Years and the Queen's Bereavements Rumored as the Cause—Her Recent Actions Give Credence to the Report.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—The rumor that Queen Victoria intends to retire in favor of the Prince of Wales is again current and it is added that court circles are greatly troubled regarding the condition of the queen's health. Such reports have frequently appeared of recent years, only to be semi-officially contradicted later.

But it now seems that there may be some actual foundation for the statements made. It is added that her majesty has decided to spend her time in future at Balmoral or at Osborne, and that she will give the Prince and Princess of Wales the use of Buckingham palace and Windsor castle.

There is no doubt that the queen seems to feel greatly the weight of her years and bereavements, and her majesty is quoted as having repeatedly remarked, during her last stay in this city at Buckingham palace, upon the occasion of the recent marriage of Princess Maud of Wales to Prince Charles of Denmark:

"This is my last visit to London."

Color is given to the rumors in circulation by the deep emotion displayed by the queen as she bowed in reply to the enthusiastic cheers of the multitudes which lined the route from Buckingham palace to the railroad station, where she took train for Windsor after the marriage ceremonies.

GOOD THING FOR SPAIN.

A Cuban Paper's Comments on the President's Proclamation.

HAVANA, Aug. 1.—La Lucha has a comment upon the report from Washington that President Cleveland's proclamation of warning to filibusters is designed to fulfill all necessary preliminary formalities on the part of the United States government so as to aid claims for indemnities which the United States intends to make on Spain for losses suffered by Americans during the war in Cuba.

La Lucha observes that such a course might not be so bad for Spain as it appears and might even be in her favor, because the Madrid government would back with unimpeachable proofs a claim on the Washington government for all damages caused by the negligence which has always been displayed by the United States government toward the prevention of filibustering.

The proved compliance of local and high national officials of the United States with the plans of the filibusters, says La Lucha, and the fact that they have lent protection to the arming and dispatching of expeditions which they were ordered to prevent, constitutes a serious crime, as President Cleveland, in his proclamation, points out.

This journal concludes that where Spain would have to pay $10 indemnity she could easily and surely collect $1,000.

THE BILLET POOL SAFE.

No Dissatisfaction Was Developed at the Conference.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—About 30 establishments engaged in the manufacture of steel billets were represented at a conference which was held at the Holland House, in this city. It had been understood that the purpose of the conference was to revise the arrangement as to production and prices into which the manufacturers entered last April, the statement having been made that some of the smaller concerns, dissatisfied with the percentage of output assigned to them, threatened to cut prices $2 a ton. Two sessions of the conference were held.

Major L. F. Vent of Philadelphia presiding. John G. Griscom of Pittsburgh assured the reporters after the adjournment of the meeting that if there existed any such dissatisfaction as had been alleged, it did not show itself at the conference, which, he added, was merely for the purpose of considering routine business.

VICTORY.

This county will give an overwhelming Republican victory in the coming presidential issue. The silver craze has failed to distract attention from the vital issue of the campaign, protection to home and home industries, as exemplified in the life, character and statesmanship of protection's greatest living champion and exponent, Wm. McKinley, the next president of the United States. Cleveland, Wilson and Bryan, blatant free traders, have done their utmost to ruin this fair land, and have succeeded in stopping, in a large measure, the wheels of industry. Manufacturing establishments have been compelled to shut down, or curtail expenses, and thousands upon thousands of workmen have been thrown out of employment, while farmers have been forced to sell wool at 9 cents per pound, and the pottery industry has been almost ruined. Bryan has been the absolute enemy of the manufacturer, the mechanic, the farmer and the pottery worker, and Columbiana county will repay him through the medium of an overwhelming Republican victory. Every workman, whose capital is his labor, should brand Bryan at the ballot box.

THE REAL REASON.

The man who feels sufficient interest in the silver question to give it serious thought, will find that it hinges solely upon the grasping disposition of the mine owners of the West. The value of a given number of grains of silver when coined into money, is greater than the value of the same number of grains when in the form of bullion. The mine owners have the bullion and the government owns the stamp—which makes the money. Not satisfied with the profit derived from the sale of silver, a commodity in the market, the miners would increase the interest on their investment by raising the price. They want the government to take their silver, and without any charge transform the bullion into coin. There can be only a certain amount of silver in a dollar, and the difference between the market value of that quantity and the 100 cents it is worth when the stamp is put on, represents the fictitious value, the amount which some one must lose. If the silver in a dollar is only worth 53 cents before the government makes it into money, then 47 cents is the loss to the government after the stamp is applied, for the United States declares that 53 cents worth of silver is equal in value to one dollar of gold. As the government is nothing more than the people as a whole, it is self evident that all the people must make up that 47 cents in every dollar coined. The only benefit goes to the mine owner, who can well afford to lose his share when there are so many millions of men to make up the remainder. To him it is the source of great profit. He is accumulating wealth at the expense of the remainder of the people. While they are paying the difference in the real and the fictitious value of the myriads of silver dollars coined under the unlimited clause, he is quietly taking in the profit.

There could be but one end to this ruinous policy. The currency of the country would be watered, and after a time it would overflow. Like a soaked sponge it would refuse to longer retain the fluid. Then the crash would come. The millions lost by the government in upholding a supposititious value would be felt. There would be an end, and an awful end it would be. The people who had been doing business on a dollar almost one half of which was credit, the workman who took it for his labor, the merchant who took it over his counter, and the manufacturer and farmer who received it in exchange for their products and crops would be the sufferers. The only man who could count a gain would be the miner, who had been giving 53 cents worth of silver to the government, and receiving in return a dollar ready for circulation.

M'KEE CLAIMS AN ALIBI.

The Portsmouth Dynamiter Says He Can Prove His Innocence.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Aug. 1.—Tom McKee, the alleged dynamiter, still stoutly maintains his plea of innocence. When asked to plead in the warrant prepared by Marshal Watkins McKee, in a tone somewhat indicating surprise, said: "Why, land of rest, of course I am not guilty. I never thought of such a thing." To a reporter, in a few minutes afterward, he repeated his plea and said he thought the guilty party ought to be hanged.

McKee has prepared a list of witnesses by which he expects to prove his whereabouts at the time the explosions took place. He claims he can account for every minute.

A detective from Chicago, who has been working on the case says McKee is innocent.

Attorney Beatty, who was refused permission to consult with McKee, is very bitter in his denunciation of the authorities. He claims he had been engaged by friends of McKee and is armed with incontrovertible evidence to prove an alibi.

Marshal Watkins has a theory that the attack on the Second Presbyterian church is due somewhat to the fact that Mrs. Basham some time ago lived in a house belonging to the janitor of the church, and was evicted for non-payment of rent. By blowing up the church McKee was not only evening up his score with the city, but was getting in a lick for Mrs. Basham with whom he is desperately in love.

THE FIRST GUN AUG. 15.

Sherman, Foraker and Possibly McKinley May Speak at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, Aug. 1.—The Republican state executive committee at its meeting here decided to formally open the Ohio Republican campaign with a rally in this city Aug. 15, Senator Sherman is to preside and will make the opening speech. He will be followed by Senator-elect Foraker, who has decided to postpone his European tour in order to be present. An effort is now being made to secure the attendance of another equally prominent Republican and several messages have been sent urging him to come.

These have been supplemented by a personal invitation from Governor McKinley, and it is believed that there will be no trouble in securing his acceptance. So far he has been busy with the work of the campaign in his own state. Should he not come another equally well-known Republican who was forward in the fight made in behalf of Governor McKinley at the St. Louis convention will be invited, so that in any event the best speakers in the party will be present.

It is also possible that Governor McKinley will come, an invitation having been sent him, to which no answer has been received.

DECLARED FOR ARBITRATION.

The International Labor Congress Wants Standing Armies Abolished.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—The International Socialist and Labor congress has declared in favor of the abolition of the standing armies and the establishment of a national citizen force, and in favor of the establishment of a tribunal of arbitration whose decision should be final and whose duties it should be to regulate disputes between nations, adding that the question of war or peace should rest with the people where the governments refuse to accept the award of the tribunal of arbitration.

The congress also protested against secret treaties, declaring that the workmen can only obtain the objects enumerated by gaining control of legislation and allying themselves with the international socialist movement.

Thirteen Cars and Engine Wrecked.

WILMINGTON, O., Aug. 1.—Freight train No. 49, on the Cincinnati and Muskingum Valley railroad, struck a bunch of cattle two miles out. Thirteen cars and the engine were thrown from the track, tearing up the rails and roadbed for some distance. The engine is not badly injured, but the cars will be burned as they lay. Aside from a sprained and a bruised face, the engineer miraculously escaped injury. At the time of the accident two cars were being pushed in front of the engine.

Strike at Cleveland Resumed.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 1.—The strike at the works of the Brown Hoisting and Conveying Machine Company was renewed today by order of the strikers' executive committee. The men found that the settlement effected by the state board of arbitration does not include recognition of authority of labor union committees, nor the discharge of all non-union men, and on these points they will continue the battle.

HARRITY HAS RETIRED.

Prominent Figure Now Out of National Politics.

TAKES HIS PLACE IN THE RANKS.

He Makes Public a Statement Announcing His Retirement From Active Political Work—Still Intends to Take Interest in His Party.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 1.—William F. Harry, until recently the chairman of the Democratic national committee and for years a leader in the party councils, has made the interesting announcement that he has retired from active politics.

In answer to inquiries on the subject Mr. Harry made the following statement: "Yes, it is true that I have determined to withdraw from active participation in political affairs. For several years past I have been accorded some prominence in the management and leadership of the Democratic party, but I now desire to take my place in the ranks, except in so far as I may have duties to perform as the Pennsylvania member of the Democratic national committee.

In taking this step, I wish to express my warm appreciation of the personal and political friendship and support which I have enjoyed during my political career. I have no resentments for my enemies, and nothing but gratitude for my friends. No man ever had warmer or more loyal and devoted friends than I have had. These friends

BRYAN'S EASTERN TRIP.

The Democratic Candidate Announces Coming Itinerary.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 1.—Mr. Bryan has announced his itinerary for his eastern trip to meet the notification committee from the Democratic national convention in Madison Square garden Aug. 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will leave Lincoln on the Burlington at 6 o'clock Friday evening, Aug. 7, arriving in Chicago on Saturday afternoon. They will stop over Sunday and will leave Chicago on the Pennsylvania road about midnight Sunday night, reaching Pittsburgh Monday night. They will stay over night in Pittsburgh and leave for New York early Tuesday morning, arriving there about half past 6 Tuesday evening. The national committee will meet in New York at the time of the notification and important campaign matters will be discussed.

From New York Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will go to Bath, Me., and spend a few days with the Sewalls. The return trip will not be arranged until after the New York meeting. Mr. Bryan is not making any dates for speeches at this time, and will not do so until after the national committee has been consulted. He has been receiving large numbers of invitations to speak in almost every state of the Union. Most of them have come by mail or wire, but many have been extended by men who have come in person for that purpose. To each, he has given the same answer, that he would make no appointments until after meeting with the national committee.

W. F. HARRY.

I still hope to retain, even though I have withdrawn from active political association with them; and if the time shall come when I can serve or aid them, it will be my pleasure to respond to their calls or demands.

"I shall," said Mr. Harry, "continue to take a general interest in politics and shall always be ready to do whatever I reasonably and consistently can to promote the success of the Democratic party, but I shall absolutely refrain from any participation whatever in matters that relate to party organization and management. I have given a good deal of my time and energies to political matters since 1882 when I first began to take an active part in politics. I have now concluded, however, to take a rest from politics, so to speak, and to devote all of my energies to the management of the affairs of the Equitable Trust company, to the practice of my profession and to my private business matters.

VISITED MAJOR MCKINLEY.

Farmers, Workmen and Old Soldiers of Guernsey County, O., Called.

CANTON, O., Aug. 1.—The most enthusiastic delegation and most affecting greeting at the McKinley home was the visit of farmers, workmen and old soldiers of Guernsey county. The delegation left Cambridge on the Cleveland and Marietta railroad and in a short time struck the flooded lowlands. "For seven miles," said ex-Congressman J. D. Taylor, "the locomotive poked its nose through water overflowing the Tuscarawas river and it was a fight to get through."

At the McKinley residence Mr. Taylor acted as spokesman for the party, which was under G. A. R. auspices. Chaplain William McFarland of the United Presbyterian church, Cambridge, followed, saying: "I came not to speak, but to see and hear and think and to grasp the hand of the most illustrious friend of labor in the United States, or in the world."

Turning to Major McKinley, who was standing under the folds of an old flag which waved above him by an old soldier, the chaplain grasped McKinley's hand and, trembling with emotion, said:

"I know of no man who has done more to elevate and dignify labor than you. I know of no man who has put a brighter crown of glory on the brow of honest toil than yourself."

Tears came to many an eye, and it was with visible feeling that Major McKinley replied.

THE GOLD CONVENTION.

An Important Meeting of Democrats in Chicago Today.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—There will be a meeting of the executive committee having in charge state organizations of gold standard I em crats at the Palmer H. use headquarters today.

General Bragg, chairman, issued the call and it is expected reports will be received from states enough to give an indication as to what extent the third ticket movement has gone and will go.

The work of bringing out a national convention is progressing satisfactorily. It is now believed that from 30 to 35 states will be represented at the conference on Aug. 7.

A Bad Gang Sentenced.

VIENNA, Aug. 1.—After six weeks' trial at Agram the Stenjevec band, numbering 36 persons, charged with 18 murders and numerous assaults and robberies, has been ended. Nineteen, including two women, have been sentenced to death, nine have been sentenced to imprisonment and eight acquitted.

REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN BOOK.

It Will Be Ready Monday—Chairman Jones' Intentions.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The Republican congressional committee announces that the campaign book text book will be ready for distribution Monday.

Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee is expected here on Monday. Immediately after his arrival the announcement of the location of the national headquarters will be made. Little doubt is entertained at the Democratic congressional headquarters that Washington will be selected. The rooms engaged at the Bartholdi in New York were simply those of the treasurer.

Senator Faulkner, chairman of the Democratic congressional committee returned from his home in West Virginia today. He believes that the national Democratic headquarters will be located here. He says the demand upon his committee for campaign literature at this early stage is unprecedented. It is confined exclusively to the money question.

The principal speeches called for are those of Representative Towne, Senators Teller, Cockrell, Vest and Harris. The temporary and probably the permanent headquarters of the Populist national committee will be located at 1429 New York avenue, which is the headquarters of Senator Stewart and his silver paper.

The London Graphic Thinks This the Solution of the Trouble.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—The Graphic this morning comments President Cleveland's renewed warning that the neutrality laws must be observed and says: "An American annexation of Cuba being a possible solution, it is the more imperative that the possible heir to the involuntary legacy from Spain should exhibit no indecent haste in precipitating a settlement of the question."

Such reports have frequently appeared of recent years, only to be semi-officially contradicted later.

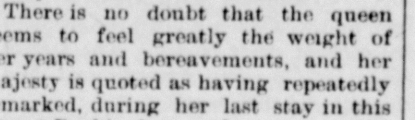

But it now seems that there may be some actual foundation for the statements made. It is added that her

FACTORY SYSTEMS IN SWITZERLAND.

It is most interesting to compare the different methods by means of which the highest grade of mechanical perfection is attained in various countries. Notwithstanding the high character of American watches, for example, the finest Swiss watches will retain their great reputation. The Swiss workman receives the parts from the manufacturer in the rough, takes them to his home, puts his best individual skill into the finishing and assembling and brings the completed watches to his employer. The latter inspects the work, and out of a batch of, say, 50 watches he selects five or six as worthy of his attention and puts the others into the regular trade under some general trade name. The selected watches he readjusts, working over them for days, weeks and months before he considers them worthy to bear his own name, and it is these watches which go to those who not only have the money to buy, but also the patience to wait.

A prominent firm of American jewelers, chafing under the inconveniences of this old world method of doing things, sought to introduce American methods and see if the highest grade of Swiss watches could not be made more methodically. A factory was built, cutting rates of wages were offered to the most skillful workmen, and the experiment was tried. But, alas, the Swiss workman soon found that no regular wages could pay him for his loss of liberty. To be on hand when the whistle blew in the morning, to have his stated hour for dinner and his fixed hour for quitting at night—these restrictions he could not long stand. Formerly he had worked when he felt like it and stopped when it pleased him, and when he was paid for one job he took his own time to begin the next, generally waiting until his funds ran low. The factory plan did not work for long, and the idle building now bears silent testimony to the Swiss love for independence, which is as much a factor in present life as it has been in past history.—Cassier's Magazine.

What Marco Polo Did.

Marco Polo was the first traveler to trace a route across the whole length of Asia, says one of his biographers, "describing kingdom after kingdom that he had seen with his own eyes." He was the first traveler to explore the deserts and the flowering plains of Persia, to reveal China with its mighty rivers, its swarming population and its huge cities and rich manufactures; the first to visit and bring back accounts of Tibet, Laos, Burma, Siam, Ceylon, China, Japan, the Indian archipelago, Ceylon, farther India and the Andaman islands; the first to give any distinct account of the secluded Christian empire of Abyssinia; the first to speak even vaguely of Zanzibar, Madagascar and other regions in the mysterious south and of Siberia and the Arctic ocean in the terrible and much dreaded north. Although centuries have passed since young Marco Polo grew to man's estate while treading his dangerous way among these distant lands, we must still look back to his discoveries for much that we know about those countries; for we have learned nothing new of many of them since his time.—Noah Brooks in St. Nicholas.

If a man knew he was going to be hanged, he would certainly make every effort to prevent it. He would do everything he could and strain every nerve to the last minute to get himself out of his predicament. Men have been saved from hanging after the rope was around their necks. There are ways of dying that are not so quick that are even more certain. The man who neglects his health, and who in sickness refuses to take medicine, really has the rope of disease around his neck. He will die if he doesn't throw it off. A man who would struggle against hanging may yet be careless about his health. He may be traveling straight toward consumption and pay no attention to it, and yet death by consumption is much more terrible than death by hanging. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption. Consumption is likely to be caused by weakness. In its turn, it increases the weakness. The "Golden Medical Discovery" is an invigorating, strength-giving and flesh-making medicine. It increases the appetite, puts the digestive organs in perfect order, purifies and enriches the blood, and builds up firm, healthy flesh.

In one chapter of Dr. Pierce's great thousand page family doctor book—"The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," are scores of letters from people who have been cured of consumption, lingering coughs, throat and bronchial diseases by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery." Their full names and addresses are given and their cases were generally pronounced hopeless by the local doctors. Twenty-five (25) one-cent stamps, to pay for mailing only, will secure a free copy of this great book. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 663 Main street, Buffalo, N. Y.

CARE OF BEDS AND BEDDING.

A Few Shrewd Observations on an Everyday Topic.

There is a vast difference in the way different housekeepers manage and care for their beds. Some of them fully believe in the fresh air theory and during pleasant weather, as soon as their toilet is made, up go the bedroom windows and the pillows are laid upon the sill for an airing; the bedclothing, if not removed and thrown on a chair, is turned down over the foot of the bed. If a feather bed is used, that is also well shaken up and left until the bed is again made up, sometimes in the forenoon. This management is in strong contrast to the usual plan of never touching a slept in bed until it is again prepared for the sleeper, yet in the item of health there is perhaps no discernible difference.

The children living in homes of squalor and wretchedness, whose bedding is perhaps not changed once a month, are quite as healthy and cheerful as those who sleep in bed linen changed daily. The Chinaman who sleeps on his pillow of wood is quite as strong and usually less nervous than the "Mellican man" who rests his head upon downy pillows. However, this is no excuse why beds should not receive proper care and a thorough airing frequently, if not daily. It is certainly a matter of habit, and the daughters usually in this line follow the practice inculcated by their mothers.

Bedclothes that are stored away should be aired several times each year, as moths and the carpet bug will raise sad havoc with them if not properly attended to. Camphor gum or fine tobacco scattered between each fold will keep out the former, but cannot be depended upon as a panacea for the carpet bug. If mice are known to be about the premises, traps should be properly baited and placed near their haunts, as at nesting time they will riddle bedding to make a soft nest. A close fitting chest or trunk makes the safest storing place for all unused clothing, bedding, etc. A large plain trunk can usually be purchased for a small sum, and will pay its cost every year in the safety of its contents.—Germantown Telegraph.

PIN HISTORY.

The Useful Articles Were Known In Early Times to Egyptians.

Pins are, as the saying goes, as old as the hills. In some form or another they have been in existence ever since our first parents clothed themselves in fig leaves, which grew wild in the garden of Eden. As a matter of fact, pins claim a very high antiquity, the earliest form being the natural thorn, which is still used to some extent by the peasant women of upper Egypt. In prehistoric times pins were also made of the small bones of fish and animals.

Among the remains of the lake dwellers of Europe have been found bronze pins and bronze brooches, in which the pins form the prominent feature, many of which are highly ornamental and very beautiful. A few copper and one iron pin have also been found. It is estimated that 10,000 pins have been collected at the lacustrine station of Switzerland alone. A few of these have double stems and were probably used as hairpins. There have been found at Peschiera pins which are exactly the same in form as the safety pins of the present time. Among the single stem pins are many ingenious devices for preventing the spike from passing entirely through the cloth or other material it is used for fastening together. Many of them are so formed that they are thicker in some places than in others. A large number, both of bone and bronze, had the head formed of a loose ring passed through an eye in the pin. A few of them have the appearance of the scorpion now in use. In Egypt pins with gold heads have been discovered, while in ancient Rome bronze pins and bone hairpins with ornamental heads have been discovered among relics of Pompeii.—Philadelphia Press.

LARGE BIRDS DISCOVERED BY EXPLORERS THAT DO THIS.

The Nest of the Albatross and Some Others Is Where They Sit Down—An Island in the Antarctic Regions—The Experience of Audubon.

Some time ago a small party of explorers landed on one of the apparently barren islands just on the borders of the antarctic regions and found it inhabited by a remarkable colony of birds that ranged from large Mother Carey like birds to penguins of all kinds and degrees. The island was fairly covered with the feathered inhabitants, and, as the boat ran on to a rock that apparently afforded a landing, the birds, instead of moving away, seemed determined to resent the intrusion and stood their ground, viciously attacking the men, who, though they knocked the birds aside with clubs and oars, made no appreciable inroad upon their numbers.

The party then formed a compact body, and, armed with boathooks to push the shrieking throng aside, moved up what apparently was a street here and there dotted with singular stool-like objects about 3 feet in width, larger at the top. These were the nests of the albatross, and, as the men were especially desirous of obtaining a set of eggs, they observed the nests very carefully, but in every instance the bird when approached shuffled clumsily away, and no eggs were found, though the birds were supposed to be sitting upon them.

Finally a nest was found containing an egg, but just as the men drew near the bird alighted and took her place upon it, cying them with suspicion and uttering a curious half hissing sound. They watched her for a few moments and then forced her from the nest, when, to their amazement, the egg had disappeared as completely as though it had been swallowed up. The nest was examined closely and finally torn apart, the men thinking that possibly the egg might have slipped into it in some mysterious way, but without success.

One of the party attempted to catch an albatross, and while he was following the bird in a ludicrous chase over the stubble an egg suddenly appeared, dropped by the running bird, which had all the time been carrying it, not under her wing, as she is supposed to do at sea by superstitious sailors, but in a peculiar sack in the skin provided by nature for this very purpose.

The albatross is famed for its power of flight, following vessels hundreds of miles. Yet when nesting it apparently forgets that it has wings, as it can be handled and pushed about in the nest, making no attempt to fly or move unless driven away by blows. This may be due to the fact that the egg is held in the curious sack and the bird instinctively knows that it cannot fly off with it; so it resists.

This sly bird is called the molly mauck. And its cousin, the great albatross, has a similar habit, the egg, which is five inches in length, almost as large as that of a swan, being held in a perfect incubating pouch.

On Marion island the explorers found the great king penguin—a bird which stands half as high as a man, with its bill pointing directly upward instead of out, as with other birds. As they landed and approached the singular creatures, which had been standing about, they hopped away slowly, but not an egg could be found, a set of which was the object of the visit.

The birds had a peculiar movement. Instead of walking and moving one foot after the other, or alternately, they held them close together and hopped. This excited the laughter of the men, who finally toppled a bird over, where-

FACTORY SYSTEMS IN SWITZERLAND.
Skilled Watchmakers Will Not Work by American Methods.

It is most interesting to compare the different methods by means of which the highest grade of mechanical perfection is attained in various countries. Notwithstanding the high character of American watches, for example, the finest Swiss watches will retain their great reputation. The Swiss workman receives the parts from the manufacturer in the rough, takes them to his home, puts his best individual skill into the finishing and assembling and brings the completed watches to his employer. The latter inspects the work, and out of a batch of, say, 50 watches he selects five or six as worthy of his attention and puts the others into the regular trade under some general trade name. The selected watches he readjusts, working over them for days, weeks and months before he considers them worthy to bear his own name, and it is these watches which go to those who not only have the money to buy, but also the patience to wait.

A prominent firm of American jewelers, chafing under the inconveniences of this old world method of doing things, sought to introduce American methods and see if the highest grade of Swiss watches could not be made more methodically. A factory was built, enticing rates of wages were offered to the most skillful workmen, and the experiment was tried. upon the egg rolled out upon the sand. The king penguin was also an egg carrier, not only holding it while standing still, but carrying the big egg about with it by placing it in a pouch for the purpose, holding it in with the broad webbed feet that are kept closely together. This explained the curious hopping motion of the birds, as they could not move their feet without dropping the egg, but the moment one was forced to give up the prize it ran away, using both feet, like ordinary birds.

This remarkable habit does away with the necessity of a nest, as the bird carries its egg with it as it moves about. In these instances the birds rarely transport the egg to a great distance. If undisturbed, they probably remain about a certain locality, but there are birds which have been known to transport their eggs from one place to another, literally flying away with them. When Audubon first heard this story of the night hawk, called Chuck Will's widow, he thought it a story of the negroes. Some insisted that the bird carried the egg away under its wing; others that it rolled the egg over the ground. To determine the truth Audubon concealed himself in the woods under a nest, having first handled the eggs, and waited to see what the old bird would do. The first bird to arrive appeared very dejected at the discovery that the secret home had been found, ruffling up its feathers and uttering a moaning cry just audible to the listener. Then the mate arrived, and, after various movements indicative of alarm, each bird took an egg in its capacious mouth and flew softly away.

Le Vaillant, the French naturalist, observed the collared goshawk of the Cape of Good Hope carrying off its eggs in the same manner—a comparatively easy feat, as the mouth of all these birds is very capacious, a veritable trap when the jaws are opened for the various insects upon which they feed in the dusk between day and night.

Many birds carry their young short distances, as the woodcock, which has been seen carrying off a little one between the claws, while it is well known that the wood duck carries its young down from the nest in trees to the water, using her bill for the purpose.—Philadelphia Times.
